JUNE

'YOURS IS THE DAY, YOURS ALSO IS THE NIGHT; YOU HAVE PREPARED THE LIGHT
AND THE SUN. YOU HAVE ESTABLISHED ALL THE BOUNDARIES OF THE EARTH; YOU HAVE MADE SUMMER AND WINTER.'

Psalm 74 verses 16 & 17

Part 6 of a six-part series by Rev Paul Hardingham.

.....TO DELIVER

'If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and He will deliver us from your majesty's hand. But even if He does not, we want you to know, your majesty that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up.' (Daniel 3 verses 17&18)

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were Jewish exiles in Babylon who lived godly lives, but things didn't go well for them. When Nebuchadnezzar set up a golden statue of himself, the trio refused to bow down to it and they were thrown into the fiery furnace. However, they trusted in God alone and were fully persuaded that He was able to deliver them, while knowing that He always does it in his way!

Why do bad things happen to good people? In our own lives, we can suffer a heart attack, our marriage falls apart, our children get into trouble or we lose our job. Yet God is able to deliver us in these circumstances, but on His terms!!

We may be facing fire in our own lives: divorce, sickness and financial issues. We may have taken a stand for God, but things have got worse. We may have prayed that God would save you from the fire, but it remains. God doesn't necessarily save us from the fire, but He will bring us through it.

As for Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, the miracle is not outside the fire but inside it. When Nebuchadnezzar looked to the fire, he saw four figures. Jesus was present in the flames, as He is with us too.

'When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze.' (Isaiah 43 verse 2).

FIFA WORLD CUP
RUSSIA 2018

WORLD CUP FEVER

The former Liverpool Manager Bill Shankly famously said, 'Some people believe football is a matter of life and death, I am very disappointed with that attitude. I can assure you it is much, much more important than that!'

This month sees the start of the World Cup in Russia; a truly global event watched by billions on television. Yet this competition illustrates some key points about the Christian life. As Paul writes: 'But one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead, I press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenwards in Christ Jesus.' (Philippians 3:13b,14).

A PRIZE TO BE WON: The dream of every player in the competition is to be able to hold up the World Cup themselves. For us the prize is the eternal life, God's gift of relationship with him for now and eternity through Jesus. But there's an important difference between football and the Christian faith. To win the World Cup you have to be good enough, while Christ's love for us is underserved and is not dependent on how well we've done.

TRAINING TO BE UNDERTAKEN: If a team is going to win the World Cup, they have to train hard beforehand. Our training, as Christians, starts the moment we accept the gift of God's life. On a daily basis, we train ourselves to say no to the wrong things in our lives. As we build up our godly muscles we are better able to choose to do what is right in God's eyes. To enable us to do all this we need to engage in the spiritual disciplines of prayer, studying the Bible and being part of a church and small group. How is your training going?

THE PERSECUTED CHURCH COMING STORM FOR CHINESE CHRISTIANS UNDER 'EMPEROR' XI

A leading campaigner has warned of a gathering storm for persecuted Christians in China. Release International partner, Bob Fu, says the persecution of Christians has worsened dramatically under President Xi Jinping, and is set to get worse now Xi has been declared president for life.

Bob Fu said: 'Churches have been totally destroyed under President Xi's rule. This may even be worse than during the Cultural Revolution.'

President Xi has imposed tough new restrictions on religious freedom, which came into force on 1st February. The latest crackdown has been in Luoning County, where the authorities have banned preaching and gathering for worship and have been arresting Christians. Officials have smashed windows, torn religious murals from homes, removed crosses from churches, cut off electricity and confiscated property. They have stationed guards in private homes to prevent family prayers. 'It feels like another Cultural Revolution,' one Chinese Christian remarked.

'Since February, even organising a prayer meeting in your home is totally forbidden,' said Bob Fu. 'If you disobey, your home will be subject to destruction. According to the new regulations you cannot share religious messages with anyone under 18. And students, young people and Communist party members have been forbidden from entering churches.'

Persecution is likely to increase in the coming months and years, believes Fu. The signs are that the Communist party is tightening its grip on the nation under President Xi Jinping who is now president for life.

The aim is to make everything more Chinese in character or form and so to bring the churches under the absolute control of the Communist party. Even registered churches are being forced to install face-recognition cameras and provide office space for Communist party members to monitor the church.'

'We are seeing Christians labelled as belonging to 'evil cults', simply because they have been reading books like Pilgrim's Progress and Streams in the Desert.

One target of the Communist party is to curb the rapid growth of the Church. When the party took power in 1949 there were around a million Christians in China. By the 1980s, the Church had grown ten-fold, despite attempts to eradicate the faith during the Cultural Revolution. Today, the number of Chinese Christians is estimated at more than 100m. There are now more Christians than members of the Communist party in China, and that figure is set to more than double. This is the real reason for the clampdown, Bob Fu believes.

Release International is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. Through its international network of missions, UK-based Release serves persecuted Christians, including in China, by supporting pastors and Christian prisoners and their families, supplying Christian literature and Bibles, and working for justice.

THE WINDRUSH EXHIBITION

A TRIBUTE TO THE MIGRANTS AT THE BRITISH LIBRARY

This month marks 70 years since the Empire Windrush arrived at Tilbury Docks carrying hundreds of migrants from the Caribbean. The British Library opens its special Windrush Exhibition this month (1st June to 21st October).

Key exhibits in the Windrush Exhibition include ER Braithwaite's original typescript of To Sir, With Love, the autobiographical novel that became a film starring Sidney Poitier.

As we remember those who came on the Empire windrush we thank god for their contribution to all parts of society including churches.

ONCE A MONTH CONGREGATION CALLED MESSY CHURCH

The bible says a lot about the life of Jesus but there are 5 parts of the Jesus story which are celebrated in particular; First, His birth at Christmas. then His death on the cross and His resurrection at Easter, and, finally, when he was taken up into heaven, His Ascension, and when He sent the Holy Spirit at Pentecost to give us the ability to live like Him, and help people understand all that God and Jesus have done for us.

On Sunday May 5th the Messy Church congregation thought about what the bible has to say:

The Bible says:
'Jesus was taken up before their very eyes and a cloud hid him from their sight'

The Bible says:

Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit.
